Chorus:  E
Three men on the mountain up on Calvary
A                     E
And the man in the middle was Jesus
B                E
He died for you and me

Verse 1:  E                                     D
Well the man on the left was a sinner man
E
Tied to the cross he bled
A                  E
He could have been forgiven
B                 E
But he mocked the Lord instead
  D
“You say you are the son of God
E
But they nailed you to a tree
A                   E
Come down, come down and save us
B               E
If God your father be.”

Chorus:  E
Three men on the mountain up on Calvary
A                     E
And the man in the middle was Jesus
B                E
He died for you and me

Verse 2: E                                      D
Well the man on the right was a sinner too
                                          E
But he was sorry for his sin
                                          A                     E
He begged the Lord’s forgiveness
                                          B             E
And Jesus said to him
                                          D
“Fear not, fear not this earthly death
Cause before this day is o’er
                                          A             E
You’ll be with me in paradise
                                          B                   E
On God’s bright golden shore.”

Chorus: E
Three men on the mountain up on Calvary
                                          A                     E
And the man in the middle was Jesus
                                          B                E
He died for you and me
