

AT LEAST THREE PEOPLE

Each individual has a purpose on this earth. Look at the negative side first. Our purpose is not to hurt people or lower their worth; nor to judge others, only God is qualified for this task. Our purpose is not to complain when we go through rough times, remember, we are God's representatives in our trials and troubles. From the positive side. The Christian life does not assure us of a trouble free pathway, only the joy of knowing that we do not walk that pathway alone. God, in His love, walks beside us. Never forget God's love reaches out to others through you and me.

"Tell at least three people you love them today," states the sign on Hwy. 202. How much better our community would be if we followed these words. Have you shared God's love with three people each day in The Daily Walk.
