

Nothing More

words & music ©2006 Elmo Goontz

There was a man from Galilee,
Who died upon a tree.
Father God sent Him from heaven,
To show His love for you and me.
Two thousand years have come and gone,
And still we're marking time,
From the day that He left heaven,
To raise the dead and heal the blind.

But that's not all He did, no –
There's power in His name.
He raised up from the grave to show us,
One day we would do the same.

Sixty and six books testify about the man,
Who claimed to be God.
It's time you let Him know just where you stand.
Is he the Truth or just a lie?
There's no in between;
It's the greatest hoax in history,
Or the greatest thing mankind has ever seen.

So make up your mind,
You must choose this day,
Whom it is that you will serve –
There's nothing more that I can say.
