Dear Mr. McGhee:

Thank you for writing, and for your continued interest in the issue of college accreditation under the Higher Education Act. I appreciate your sincere interest in seeing the that higher educational system is working in accordance with Congress's wishes, and in the best interests of students.

Mr. McGhee, I share your concerns over the accreditation process and the transferring of credits between higher education institutions. As we approach the 110th Congress one of the issues that we are all concentrating on is the reauthorization of the Higher Education Act. I understand from conversations with Bobby Pickles that you are also concerned that not every portion of HEA has been enacted fully. I share your concern, and am happy that in the coming year the new majority in Congress will be able to better create and implement laws that will lead the United States to once again leading the world in education.

Thank you again for writing and for furnishing my staff with so much information to pass on to me. I do appreciate your interest in higher education and the well-being of students everywhere. Sincerely,

F. Allen Boyd, Jr.
Member of Congress
