How Do I Know When It Is Gossip?

Kevin A. Miller (Is This Gossip? 9 questions to help you decide) provides some great questions to ask yourself before you share information with others:

1. Am I telling this to someone who can do something about the problem by helping the person or offering discipline or correction?
2. If not, am I telling this to someone who is wise enough to help me sort out my feelings and courageous enough to make me do the right thing: to confront the person or to confess where I was at fault?
3. Is this news approved for sharing?
4. Am I breaking a confidence? If so, is it only because the person is endangering someone's life, including his or her own?
5. Am I willing to say from whom I got this information so the information can be checked for accuracy?
6. When I say this, does it break my heart?
7. Have I taken the time to examine my life and confess to God how I also sin like that?
8. Am I praying for the person?
9. Would I feel comfortable if someone were saying this about me?

"With the tongue we praise our Lord and Father, and with it we curse men, who have been made in God's likeness. Out of the same mouth come praise and cursing. My brothers, this should not be" (James 3:9-10).

Several Sick - Most everyone has/is recovering, but we had several sick last week. Lots of friends and family are fighting off various illnesses.

AIM Team - They are currently working on team formation and field decisions. Please keep them in your prayers as they choose teams and missions fields in the coming weeks.

Barbara Calhoun - Recently had surgery to remove cancer

Al Gianferante - A friend of Nancy Yeaman; health problems

Jean Grant (Oswego CofC/Camp Hunt) - recovering from surgery; they believe they removed all of the cancer

Marianna Lara - Recent tests show that the cancer gone/in remission. This is an answer to many, many prayers.

David Rooney - Job search

Tammy Rooney's family - Aunt given just weeks to live; father in hospital

Amy Shaver's father - Lymphoma

Southgate Missions Sunday - Prayers answered; not only did they raise enough to continue current ministries, but they exceeded their goal.

Nancy Yeaman - Former Albany AIMer now in RI; Job search

Opportunities to Bless Others

- * One of Amy Shaver's grad students is gathering items for a humanitarian aide trip to Brazil. They'll be taking socks & flip-flops for children, along with soap, toothpaste, and toothbrushes.
- * We will be gathering food items for a Thanksgiving basket (through Hope 7) again this year. There is a sign-up list in the classroom.

Prayer and Fellowship Night

There will be a prayer/devotional night and a fellowship meal at the Glasscocks on Sunday, November 15th at 5:00 p.m. (sorry about the incorrect date in last week's bulletin). James will make a couple kinds of soup, others may bring bread, salad, dessert, and/or drinks.

Meeting for the Men of the Congregation

James needs to meet briefly after worship this morning with the men to set a time for the next worship meeting, and a couple of other quick things.

Baby Shower

There will be a baby shower on Saturday, December 5th for Laura Lougee. The shower will be at Appletini's Café in Albany from 1:00-4:00 p.m. and there will be a light lunch served. Laura and Adam are registered at Babies "R" Us and Target. Please RSVP by 12/1.

Children's Bible Hour

The children (2-10 yrs) will be with us during the first part of the assembly, and will go to their classroom for a Bible lesson just before the sermon. We'll have a special announcement, and time for them to exit with their teacher & helper. (Ellie M. & Tammy R. this week)
