

Government Quiz

Total Points: 69

Part 1: Multiple-Choice (2 points each)

Directions: Circle the answer that fits best.

1. A nation-state is another word for:

a. City	c. state
b. Country	d. continent

2. A government is important because it helps to:

a. Organize and regulate people	c. gives us something to talk about
b. Gives us President's Day off from school	d. so it can negotiate with other governments

3. A government ruled by a king or queen is called:

a. Anarchy	c. pluralism
b. Monarchy	d. France

4. When talking about rewards, one reward the government distributes is:

a. Free lottery tickets	c. free hockey tickets
b. Personal security	d. Traffic tickets

5. All of the following are functions of government that we studied EXCEPT:

a. Distribute rewards	c. delay rent
b. Enforce laws	d. make laws

6. Each one of these first lead to the development of government EXCEPT:

a. The need to provide social control of groups	c. Need to deliver mail
b. The need to preserve culture	d. help solve problems

as a group that couldn't be solved individually.

7. There are around this many nation-states in the world today:

a. 20	c. 2000
b. 200	d. 2

8. The bigger and more complex a group of people becomes the _____ government becomes:

a. More necessary	c. less necessary
b. Equally necessary	d. none of the above

9. Without rules and government there would be:

a. Anarchy	c. order
b. Strict structure	d. totalitarianism

10. All of these are these are attributes are required to be considered a nation-state EXCEPT:

a. Sovereignty	c. a national anthem
----------------	----------------------

b. Land

d. people

11. A law for the common good:

a. Is a law that benefits the person making it

c. is a law that benefits the best people in society

b. A law that benefits all of society

d. Is designed to help children

12. A republic is a type of:

a. Dictatorship

c. Oligarchy

b. Anarchy

d. Democracy

Part 2: Fill in the Blank/Matching. (3 points each)

Matching

1. ___ Institution

a. Distribute Rewards, Make and enforce laws, set goals.

2. ___ Nation-State

b. to help regulate and control people, and to help make decisions.

3. ___ Monarchy

c. Somewhere in the middle between anarchy and totalitarianism.

4. ___ Democracy

d. government ruled by a few people. Power is passed down generation to generation.

5. ___ Dictatorship

e. Government where the people hold the power to govern.

6. ___ Aristocracy

f. Another word for country.

7. ___ Functions of Government

g. An organization that has been around for a while, like a school.

8. ___ Why it is necessary to have government

h. Government ruled by one person.

9. ___ Pluralism

i. No government at all.

10. ____Anarchy

j. government ruled by a king.

FILL IN THE BLANK

WORD BANK

Anarchy	Binding	Candidates
Governor	Ordinance	Institution
Totalitarianism	Government

1. If a law is _____ then you have to follow it.
2. _____ is another word for law.
3. _____ has no laws and _____ has little or no freedom.
4. There were many _____ in the California governor's recall.
5. When they tore down that school it was sad. It was quite the _____.