on

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 23, 2003

10:30am - 3:30pm

(4 hours of teaching)

Dancer, choreographer, singer and scholar of international repute, specializing in Iranian dance & classical vocal repertoires of Iran & Turkey, ROBYN researched in Iran, Turkey & Bulgaria & studied with noted Iranian music master Morteza Varzi. She's written for the Encyclopedia Iranica, as well as many other scholarly publications. She/her choreographies have appeared at the Olympic Arts Festival, UCLA's Royce Hall, AMAN Folk Ensemble concerts (assistant dance director/Oriental section - created Qajar & Qashqai suites for their repertoire that opened to rave reviews), through Europe & the US. The Los Angeles Times describes her as: "Outstanding-rich-expressive-lovely-sinuous."

ROBYN regularly teaches workshops in Iranian dance at several colleges & universities in the US & Canada, created choreographies of traditional Iranian tribal dances for children in L.A. public schools' performing arts programs, is a board member of the Institute of Persian Performing Arts, was awarded a National Endowment for the Arts grant, performed as a solo singer at a memorial service for noted Iranian mystic philosopher, Edward Joseph, etc. I could go on & on. Oh, yes: she's fluent in Persian & Turkish (& dialects).

only $65 in advance at door $70 class size limited

(ROBYN will dance in Morocco's Concert SAT. EVE NOV 22: $20 in advance, $25 at door)
