

A Letter For Liberty

From

Dear Senator/Congressman:

I am contacting you as a very informed and concerned taxpayer.

My concerns grow daily, along with the flood of unchecked executive decisions and hasty, ill-planned legislation designed to punish those who succeed, reward those who fail, and place a further stranglehold on the very free market principles that once made this Country the envy of the world.

On the whole, members of the Legislative and Executive Branches have shown a complete disregard for the 9th and 10th Amendments, which clearly state:

- “The enumeration in the Constitution, of certain rights, shall not be construed to deny or disparage others retained by the people.”
- “The powers not delegated to the United States by the Constitution, nor prohibited by it to the States, are reserved to the States respectively, or to the people.”

Ever encroaching Federal regulations, taxes and “oversight” is not American. European-style socialism is not progress. Great American leaders lead by example. Judging by the daily incompetence and corruption within the two chambers of Congress, there is neither example nor leadership. Pledging to obey the Constitution means nothing if you or any of your fellow members fail to abide by your pledge each and every day.

I pledge to work with other concerned voters to do all that I can to remove any member of the House and Senate in 2010 who fails to display a knowledge of, or obey, every one of our sacred Bill of Rights.

Sincerely,

Date:
