Intro: Am ... G ... Am G Am Am ... G ... Am G Am

Verse 1: Am C G Am

She stood in the doorway holding his hand

Tears streaked her face as she told the young man

You're only 15 and that's so young to leave home

But your brothers are calling and you've got the urge to roam

Verse 2: Am C G Am

First John, then Tom, then Liz and now you

When a momma loses her babies there's nothin she can do

Just remember County Kerry is where you were born and a candle in our cottage burns in the storm

Chorus: C G Am
You can sail away, to the new land

and make your dreams come true

Just remember old Ireland

Cause Ireland remembers you

Break: Am ... G ... Am G Am Am ... G ... Am G Am

Verse 3: Am C G Am

She bid him farewell and fell to the floor

Knowin she'd never see him anymore

Her last young son was goin' away

C G Am
to the land across the sea that promised better days

Verse 4: Am C G Am
From the green mossy hills to the deep blue sea
C G D7
everywhere you look there's rich beauty
C G Am
But the young ones need more than a clear blue sky
C G Am
and they leave Ireland's shores and the old ways to die

Chorus: C G Am
You can sail away, to the new land
C G Am
and make your dreams come true
C G Am
Just remember old Ireland
C G Am
Cause Ireland remembers you
